

SATURDAY SEMINARS

11.00am	Jeremy Kyle (Seminar)	Dreaming up the impossible - God with you at work. Jeremy's story of how God opened up doors for him in the International art world.	Barn
11.00am	Kate	God's heart for justice. Restoration of the marginalised What is God's blueprint for communities? Discover how you can help restore dignity and hope in the world around you.	Precinct
11:15am	Ben Carswell	Help! My kids are going to Uni. Whether you are a parent or a youth leader, sending young people off to university or polytechnic can be a worry. In this session Ben will make some practical suggestions for what you can do help prepare young people for the move and support them going forward.	Student Lounge
12 noon	Chris Hay	Top ten tips for surviving Uni. (+Free sausage sizzle) Attending University for the first time can be daunting. Should I flat, or go into the halls? What about all those textbooks, do I really need to buy those? Which Church should I go to? Do I even need to go to church? We've assembled a team of amazing current and former students to offer you some top tips on how to survive University. Oh and don't forget about the free BBQ!	Student Lounge
1.00pm	Chris & Katie Gaskell	God and the Addict. A father & daughter presentation. A story of lives turned upside down by addiction and alcoholism, and the experience of the miracle of recovery and God's place in their healing.	Barn
1.00pm	Ben Wallis Josh Harmony Mary Wanhill Logan Mills	Are you passionate about action sports? Have you ever wondered if God can use that passion for His kingdom? Hear from a panel who have lived out their faith through a variety of sports - skateboarding, surfing, and motorcross.	Church
2:00pm	Kylee Black	Feeling a lack of momentum? Exploring the tension of feeling formed, but then pulled back like an arrow in a bow. We tend to think of any backwards movement in the negative. Kylee will look at the flip-side of this, trusting God and practical tools for re-thinking those seasons in life where you feel like you've lost momentum.	Soul Lounge
2:15pm	Reuben Munn	Peace and Swords. If God loves peace, why did Jesus say he came to not bring peace but a sword? What's going on here? Have the Christmas cards got it all wrong?	Barn

SATURDAY SEMINARS

2:15pm	Olivia Burne	Sport and Spirituality. Wholeness of being. Right relationship with God, creation, and oneself. For an athlete, shalom is an extraordinary promise. To be healthy in both body and mind, perform to the best of your ability, and be at peace with people and place is the dream. Yet every athlete has experienced hardship, battle and pain. So can shalom in a competitive world be more than a dream?	Church
3:15pm	Jeremy Suisted	Pursuing peace in a polarised world. At the heart of the Scriptures is a deep call for peace on earth. What does this peace look like in the frenzy of life today?	Barn
3:15pm	John Fox	If God loves me why can't I get out of bed? God upholds all in a wonderful whole - but how does He uphold you when it hurts? He promises peace, but how do I hold onto peace, now, when life is far from perfect? How do we maintain a life giving faith, and a life giving community, in the middle of difficulties? As a disabled person John speaks from Scripture and his own experience about holding onto your peace when you feel far from peaceful.	Church
4:00pm	Jeremy Kyle (Workshop)	Breaking into the creative industries. Wondering what the pro's and con's of the art world are? How to work with international clients? How to get clients? How to create the Social Media Presence? How to be a guy-boss, girl-boss, own boss? Jeremy will share from his experiences, lessons learnt and offer the attitude to have.	Precinct
4:15pm	Jamie Hunt	How do you take a business global? Jamie speaks from the experience of racing as a professional athlete and taking that love of sport to owning and developing 2XU into a global brand, working one on one with Kanye West with co-labs with Yeezy. Not to mention the spiritual lessons learnt along the way.	Barn
4:15pm	Mary Wanhill	Taking a risk. What are our young people searching for? How do we engage with young people using the risk taking sport of dirt bike riding?	Church

SUNDAY SEMINARS

11.00am	Christina Partridge	Seeking Shalom in the Dark. A prolonged experience of God's absence left me bereft and confused. Despite this darkness I have been led on an enduring quest to find Shalom, including a trip to Israel. I'm still deciphering these experiences. There is much to discover! Even in the dark.	Barn
11:00am	Strahan	God in the Dark. Strahan will be sharing about his dark night and how he discovered the peace and presence of God in the midst of it. He'll look at recent neuroscience, ancient practices and his own experiences.	Music Box
11.15am	Scott Brown	Shalom in the darkness. A messianic Jew speaks to this topic from an Hebraic perspective, and describes how the Lord meets us and heals us "in the thick darkness where God is". If God has called you into a dark place, don't panic. Rest and be transformed.	Precinct
11:15am	James Allaway	Spirituality for an angry world. The book of Psalms gives us a window into the prayer and worship practices of ancient Israel. Some of these writings contain some angry phrases that we may be surprised to find in the Bible. In this session we'll look into the book of Psalms for some help in expressing our anger and frustration to God in a way that can help us avoid falling into sin and find some peace during genuinely difficult times.	The Sanctuary
1.00am	Aaron Boyens	God in the Music. Aaron will demonstrate carefully selected songs and facilitate discussion around each one. You can expect these questions to come up in the korero: What do we listen to? What do we sing on Sunday? How do each of these activities reflect our beliefs about worship, music and God?	Barn
1:00pm	Matua (Matt) Hakiaha	Grace and not Race. Galationas 3:28 - 29. Race, rank, sex. There is neither Jew nor Gentile, slave nor free, male nor female.	Church
1:15pm	Brook Turner	From darkness to light. How my journey of photography restored my faith. Brook talks of his passion for street photography alongside examples of his work, and talks of embarking on a photo advocacy project in 2019.	Precinct

SUNDAY SEMINARS

2:00pm	Sonny Ngapine Karena	Tangatawhenua and God. As a descendant of Wiremu Tamihana and Kaumatua of Ngati Haua tribe with Manawhenua status at Werakoko (Mystery Creek) Sonny has been researching and telling stories of the twin histories - pre 1858 as a tribe unto itself, and post 1858 as part of a confederation of tribes under the King movement.	Barn
2:00pm	Jacob Parsons	Coffee has Landed! Building on last year's talk about sourcing direct trade coffee from Uganda. The thrills and spills of wrestling this initiative to first shipment.	Church
2:00pm	Auckland & Teremoana Va'a	Finding freedom in disability. A previously able-bodied couple share their story of unexpected disability and finding freedom.	Soul Lounge
3:00pm	Grant Bayldon	A Vision for the World. Poverty, environmental crisis, human rights abuses. Its easy to feel hopeless. This seminar looks at how we can be part of bringing shalom - wholeness out of brokenness - without succumbing to despair.	Church
3:00pm	Te Waka McLeod Petra Bagust Ritane Wallace	Q&A: In the bonds of love we meet, who is "we"? If you've ever asked yourself why this conversation between Maori and Pakeha still exists, or struggled to understand why this should be important to the church, then this session is for you. Hosted by Te Waka McLeod, this Q&A discussion will be a safe space for you to ask the tricky questions, and hear from our Maori and non-Maori panellists.	Barn